

Actors Ink School News What to Wear to Class

In term one the focus will be on naturalistic acting techniques such as Stanislavsky, improvisation, script analysis, characterisation just to name a few. Audition skills will be covered, as we need to prepare the students for the possibility of auditions through the Acting Agency. There will also be a general audition held in the middle of term for Actors Ink Agents Richard and Julia to assess the student's ability when casting for future projects.

The term will culminate with an In-house showcase which all parents and friends are invited to attend the last 30 minutes of class in week 10 to see what the students have been working on throughout the term. We look forward to a challenging term ahead!

NEWSLETTER

HAPPY NEW YEAR!
And welcome back to Actors
Ink & Essential Talent.

Well done to all who performed in the ET end of year concert and all those in the Actors Ink performances at Star Theatre. I was blown away with the overall improvement in technique and performance for all. I sat in for 3 days straight of Elite & Performance Troupe auditions and was stoked by the level of acting presented at the auditions.

The Actors Ink produced film "The Stranger" will have it's World premier in March at a theatre yet to be confirmed to help in celebrating "World Down Syndrome Day"

There are lots of exciting things scheduled for this year – Another film to be cast and produced by Actors Ink so keep your eyes and ears open for auditions. Essential Talent will be creating more performance opportunities for their students both here in South Australia as well as overseas. Last year a number of Essential Talent students won roles in professional shows, in shopping malls in Singapore, Hong Kong & Penang.... Yes this meant they were paid to work overseas.

This year Essential Talent plans to have it's approval as a "Registered Training Organisation" so we can deliver a DIPLOMA in a full time Musical Theatre Course for all those leaving school at the end of the year and wanting to gain a qualification in performance.

Last but not least make sure you become a fan of our Facebooks for both Essential Talent & Actors Ink as we post everyday for jobs, auditions and interesting info relevant to the industry. Stay informed!
